Featuring special guest Paolo del Vecchio M.S.W.
Fmr. Director, SAMHSA, Office of Recovery

A nationally recognized leader in behavioral health, Paolo del Vecchio served over 30 years at the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), including as the inaugural Director of the Office of Recovery. His pioneering work advanced recovery-oriented systems of care, expanding peer support, housing, employment, and trauma-informed services nationwide. As a person in long-term recovery, his lived experience shaped federal policy to center dignity, inclusion, and hope for individuals and families facing mental health and substance use challenges.
